Improvelocity

. . . is a unique and exciting improv ensemble of talented and adventurous musicians and vocal artists with richly diverse creative backgrounds and life experiences to draw from.

. . . invites audience members to "co-create" with Improvelocity musicians, live!

. . . performances begin, continue and end with 'in-the-moment' musical and non-musical impulses and synergy expressed through this rare exploration and immersion into the creative 'unknown'.

"I just wanted to tell you how much I enjoyed last night's performance. I was exhilarated and inspired by it - and have raved to most everyone I've spoken to today! There were so many special moments in the evening - but one that stands out for me is the piece on My Fathers Hands. Joel's opening on the cello - the gentle humor of it - really touched me. Wow! I actually get teary! Thanks again for last night to all of you." -- S.T.

"I love that you all are old enough (and chronological age has nothing to do with it) to be free of me-me-ego-I'm-here-look-at-me-ness. You sing, dance, play, shake and weave around each other and the audience to create spirit and breath and fun and looseness into one encompassing orb. I felt as if I were in an enclave of happeningness!" -- M.P.

"What a wonderful and inspiring night! Hard for me to stay in my chair - I wanted to move with you all. I look forward to coming again and bringing others. You're great!"
--S.T.

"Our voices are the medium through which we extend our hearts. It is my greatest desire and intent, that I bring to this world a bit more Joy, Happiness, Comfort, and Laughter. One creative impulse has the power to invite and extend inspiration. We are all one, united in spirit, each of us seeking the healing and beauty of unconditional love. Music has, in its totality, an undeniable power to heal through divine expression."

-- Andrea Loretz-Frey, Founder, Improvelocity

"My body is in rapt anticipation of what is about to occur. . .

I don't know what to expect - but I'm ready.

Aloof too, so no one will know that the real me slipped in quietly, unannounced."
